All comers No Jumps competition

The next big one on our local calendar, this year's event is on the afternoon of Sunday 20th, doors open at 2.30pm $5 per adult, $2 for juniors. Remember that it's 'All-comers', so dancers from anywhere are eligible to enter. Nationals dress is only required for those dancing for assessment. We are repeating our very popular 'Senior Cruise' event, entries on the day, dance to one song.

Caroline Bay Rock Hop

2017 will be the inaugural Caroline Bay Rock and Hop, featuring classic, custom, muscle and vintage cars, bikes and caravans from across New Zealand congregating in Timaru from the Friday through to the Sunday for a weekend of nostalgia and festivities. Friday night there will be a mellow start with a main street cruise, dress up in your rock and roll gear or in green as its St Paddys Day. Saturday is the big Rock and Hop explosion day, cars will be displayed at Caroline Bay. Along with the cars on display there will be a huge nostalgia festival with Displays, funky stalls, a bar and competitions for best dressed, best rock and rollers, etc. we also have The SBS Bank "Wearable Parts" section for all of you who would like to get creative, make and outfit from car/motorbike parts and be in to win some fantastic prizes. Topping off the Fun filled Saturday we have the Rock and Roll Party on the Saturday night where you can "Rock your socks off" till late. Tickets for this are selling fast so get in quickly.

Registered entrants are then invited to join us for a breakfast and bubbles at the Timaru Town and Country club, where you can have your pride and joy photographed by our professional photographer . From here we say our goodbyes until next year where we will party again.

For registration please go to www.carolinebayrockandhop.co.nz
Entry fee is $30 per vehicle
